Creativity - We ask "why not" whenever possible. We provide innovative solutions.

Trust - We bring the highest level of integrity to all that we do. We are open, honest and fair in our communications.

Plymouth Foam came to life in August of 1978 by Tecwyn Vance Roberts as a privately held, family company. Today, Plymouth Foam is still a family company, that is proud to be a company of families. We eagerly and warmly welcome each new team member, and their families, as they join our efforts to follow the vision of our founder who single-handedly brought foam innovations to the Plymouth community and beyond. We have three facilities (Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Ohio) and employ over 200 associates. We service a diverse customer base within markets and applications of protective packaging, lightweight structures, and thermal barriers.
